

LOCAL MENTION

AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.

Academy—"A Ragged Hero."
Bijou-Bijou Stock Company.
Chase's-Hoyt's "A Stranger in New York."
Columbia-Anna Held in "The Little Dutchman."
Kernan-Broadway Burlesquers.
National-Francis Wilson in "The Strollers."

EXCURSIONS TOMORROW.

Steamer Maclester for Mt. Vernon at 10 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.
Steamer Washington for Fort Monroe and Norfolk at 6:30 p.m.
Trains for Chesapeake Beach leave District line at 10:30 a.m., 2:30 and 5 p.m.
Trains leave Pennsylvania avenue and 13th street for Alexandria and Arlington every forty-five minutes; Mt. Vernon hourly 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.
Cars leave Aqueduct bridge for Arlington and Fort Myer every half hour; Falls Church hourly. See schedule.

KEEP HEALTHY AND STRONG
—by drinking "Old Glory." The beer that is without a peer as a tonic. Pure, wholesome and refreshing. Best for home use. Phone Abner-Drury Brewing Co. for case.

THE QUALITY AND DELICIOUSNESS
—of Schenck's famous "Malt" bread is simply unapproachable. It's a delicacy that tempts every palate. Sold by all grocers. Fresh from ovens. 5c loaf.

Royal Glue Sticks Anything. Druggists, 10c.

THE BEST 25c. COFFEE IN THE WORLD.
Try a pound at any of KENNY'S stores. Roasted daily. Sugars at cost.
C. D. KENNY CO., 50 Stores.

WASHINGTON DRESSED BEEF
and Lamb—Steaks, Roasts and Chops. The quality was never finer and the prices are remarkably reasonable. THE STAR KEAHE, 50-52 Center Market and 9 Wholesale Row.

Best ever made—Novelty Kiechener Coal Ranges at A. Eberly's Sons, 715 7th.

THE LARGEST AUCTION SALE OF FURNITURE, CARPETS, ETC.
Ever held in Washington is started promptly tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. (7th floor), 1225 F st. n.w., formerly the home of the Julius Rosenberg Furniture Co. This sale offers an opportunity of a lifetime to parties wishing to furnish their homes with furniture at their own prices.

CENTRAL STORE, 948 L. AVE.
Two carloads choice Irish Potatoes from New York, 25c. pk., 9c. lb.; Fresh Beef, Pork, Steak, Chicken, Eggs, F. H. Steak, 15c.; Bacon, Quarts Jars, 50c. at J. T. D. Pyles Six Stores.

CITY AND DISTRICT

Assessor Explains Assessment.
In the case of the Pintsch Gas Compressing Company, which has applied to the District Commissioners for a remission of interest and penalties on the taxes levied against its credits for the years 1900 and 1901, Mr. H. H. Darnelle, the assessor, has reported:

"The company must have been aware that the credits were listed for taxation, and it devolved upon them, at the state tax-paying office, to call or send for bills. While this office strives in every possible way to give notice to taxpayers of delinquent taxes, it is a task practically impossible of accomplishment in all its details. The assessor is probably not aware that there is no regulation or statute that directs or authorizes the delivery of general tax bills, except upon request of the owner or agent, and the statement of the written delinquency in providing them is inconsistent with the requirements of the office."

"Within the past month in listing arrears of taxes for 1901, it was discovered that this account was not paid, and a search was made as to any further arrears, when the 1900 tax was also found to be unpaid. It was then decided to send to notify the Pintsch Compressing Company, which was done at once."

Be On the Alert.
Consumers of Budweiser brewed exclusively by the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Ass'n, are warned against any beers bearing the same name or a similar label. Every bottle of Budweiser is provided with the well-known label, and each cork is branded "Budweiser." Beware of imitations. Examine carefully the features and insist upon Budweiser being served in your presence. Anheuser-Busch Brewing Ass'n—Advertisement.

Opens With a Reception.
The active season of the Young Men's Christian Association opens this evening with a reception to the young men of Washington. Invitations have been sent to a large number and the association leaders wish it known that any young man desirous of availing himself of the association's privileges will be welcome.

An opportunity to inspect the building and its equipment will be afforded and a program of music rendered throughout the evening. Prof. J. H. Hanson, who entertained the association last spring, will be present to enliven the evening with his vocalizations.

The Bible classes, educational classes and gymnasium classes will be resumed during the week of October 6, and enrollment in these classes is now in active progress.

The Largest Auction Sale
Of furniture, carpets, etc., ever held in Washington starts tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. 1225 F st. n.w.—Adv.

Name for Manual Training School.
Mrs. Virginia K. Wheatley has suggested to the District Commissioners that the manual training school at the corner of 7th street and Rhode Island avenue northwest be named for the late Commissioner Wheatley. Mrs. Wheatley says she makes the suggestion at the request of friends who knew Mr. Wheatley in private and official life and who esteemed him. The new Wheatley was in business for a great many years.

About Furniture.
In selling, buying or storing furniture go to Sloan's, 1407 G st.—Adv.

In Memory of the Late President.
Services were held yesterday at the People's Congregational Church, colored, in memory of the late President. The service was presided over by Mr. J. F. Burd, Professor Kelly Miller of Howard University made an address. He spoke on "William McKinley, Soldier and Statesman." President H. C. Carroll, principal of the Colored High School, spoke on "William McKinley, Citizen and Christian."

Dr. Prentiss's Tribute to McKinley.
Dr. F. J. Prentiss, pastor of Mount Vernon Baptist Church, colored, has returned to this city after attending upon the sessions of the ecumenical conference in London. In his sermon yesterday morning Dr. Prentiss spoke at some length of the loss which the nation, and more especially the south, had sustained in the death of the late President.

$10 to Buffalo and Return via B. and O. R. R. Oct. 1. Tickets good leaving Washington 7:05 a.m., arriving Buffalo 9:15 p.m. same day. Good to return within seven days. Through parlor cars. Similar excursions Oct. 10, 16, 22 and 31. Route via Philadelphia, thence Lehigh Valley.—Adv.

Released on Personal Bonds.
"Your honor, sir, I ain't guilty," was the plea entered in Judge Kimball's court this morning by Albert Dorsey, colored, who was accused of having used bad language. "As God is my witness I'm not," interrupted the court.

"I know," added the defendant, "but I'm a child of God, and a child of God ain't got no business cussin'."

He was released on his personal bonds.

Offices in The Star Building.
Desirable office rooms for rent in The Star Building, including light, heat and janitor service.

LAST RITES OVER THE DEAD

MIDNIGHT SERVICES AT THE SCOT-TISH RITE CATHEDRAL.

Funeral of Edward H. Chamberlin, A Prominent Mason, Preceded by a Kadosh Ceremony.

Impressive services in connection with the Kadosh Midnight Rite of the Ancient and Accepted Order of Scottish Rite Masons were conducted last night over the body of the late Edward H. Chamberlin at the cathedral of the order on G street. Mr. Chamberlin, who was a member of the firm of Kelley & Chamberlin, died last Monday at Phoenix, Arizona. He was a thirty-second degree Mason and was one of the most prominent members of the order. At the time of his death he was past grand master of the District, past grand high priest of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter, grand treasurer of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar, of the District, secretary of the Columbia Royal Arch Chapter, No. 1, treasurer of the Almas Temple, Mystic Shrine; a member and former treasurer of the Columbia Commandery, Knights Templar, and a member of the board of directors of the District Masonic Mutual Relief Association.

The funeral of the deceased reached Washington late yesterday afternoon and were conveyed to the cathedral, where they lay in state, surrounded by a guard of honor, until the midnight rite began. This service was conducted by Samuel A. Aler, Acting Venerable Master Kadosh, assisted by members of the thirty-second degree lodge.

The large auditorium was draped in mourning and decorated with foliage plants and flowers. The service was held in the cathedral, where they lay in state, surrounded by a guard of honor, until the midnight rite began. This service was conducted by Samuel A. Aler, Acting Venerable Master Kadosh, assisted by members of the thirty-second degree lodge.

Funeral Ceremonies.

The funeral of Mr. Chamberlin took place this afternoon. The cortege formed at Masonic Temple, 9th and F streets, at 1 o'clock. It consisted of the Grand Lodge of Masons, District of Columbia; New Jerusalem Lodge, F. A. M., No. 9; Columbia Royal Arch Chapter, No. 1; Grand Commandery, Knights Templar, District of Columbia; and Columbia Commandery, No. 1, Knights Templar, District of Columbia. Proceeding to the Scottish Rite Cathedral, the casket was met and the line of march extended to the North Presbyterian Church, between 9th and 10th streets. The edifice was thronged with the friends of the dead, and the floral tributes were magnificent, comprising offerings from fraternal bodies and numerous friends.

Divine services were conducted at 2 o'clock by Rev. Dr. Charles B. Ramsdell, pastor of the North Presbyterian Church, in the beautiful rites of the Knights Templar were conducted by Right Eminent Grand Commander George Gibson and Eminent Sir H. J. Simpson, grand prelate, assisted by the other officers of the Grand Commandery. The procession then escorted the casket to the Rock Creek cemetery, where services will be held by the Grand Lodge, F. A. M., D. O. C., conducted by Grand Master Harry Standiford, who will be assisted by the officers of the Grand Lodge.

The pallbearers were Past Grand Masters Jesse W. Lee, Jr., Matthew Trimble, John C. H. Simpson, and J. H. Hanson, Esq.; Sir Knights Frank H. Thomas, Albert H. Riddle, Past Master J. O. Roller and Past Commander Charles W. Hancock.

RESIGNATIONS ACCEPTED.

Disensions in Naval Battalion Said to Have Caused Changes.

Acting Secretary Hackett has notified Gen. Harries, commanding the District militia, of the acceptance of the resignation of Robert P. Haines, commander, and Lieut. Thomas W. Power, chief engineer, of the Naval Battalion of the District. The resignations of these officers were forwarded to the Navy Department by Gen. Harries Saturday morning, with his approval. Both letters are purely formal, and give no reason for the resignations.

Haines is known to the Navy Department on the subject, but the impression prevails there that the resignations resulted from internal disagreements in the organization of the battalion. The resignation of Lieut. Haines' successor will be made on the recommendation of Gen. Harries, and the promotion of Lieutenant Commander S. J. Hopkins is regarded as probable.

END OF LOCAL STRIKE.

Paperhangers Resolve to Close Struggle With Employers.

After a struggle with the Master Paperhangers' Association which lasted five weeks the Paperhangers' Assembly, No. 67, K. of L., has decided to call the strike off. This action was decided by a majority vote at a specially called meeting held yesterday afternoon at the headquarters of the association. It was stated that quite a number of the men will go back at the wage scale existing prior to the date of the call of the strike. The order calling the strike off was signed by the association, and the assembly has accepted it.

HAD CROSSED THE OCEAN.

Story Told by Two Boys Arraigned in Police Court.

Herbert Higham, white, and Benjamin Hawkins, colored, were prisoners in Judge Kimball's court this morning, charged by Policeman Adams with being vagrants. The officer arrested the boys at Twining City, where he found them seated on the bank of the branch viewing the scenery on this side.

"I belong here," said the white boy. "I was on my way home from Liverpool, when I went on a cattle steamer."

"How long have you been away?"

"Six months."

"Why were you loitering about Twining City?"

"Because I didn't want to come home in the daytime when I was not well dressed."

Hawkins said he had crossed the ocean with his companion, and he intended to go to his home in North Carolina.

"If I let you go," said the judge, "how long will it take you to get out of the city?"

"I don't know."

"Will it take you a week?"

"Yes, sir," replied Hawkins. "I can get out in about two hours."

"Why will it take you two hours?"

"He wants time to pack his trunk," said Prosecuting Attorney Pugh.

The boys were released on their own recognizance.

PROJECT FOR NEW PARISH.

Catholics of Bloomingdale and Vicinity Interested.

Probable plans for the establishment of a new Catholic parish will be established in the District out of a part of St. Anthony's parish at Brookland, for the accommodation of the residents of Bloomingdale and vicinity. Rev. Father Hannan, pastor of St. Anthony's parish, addressed a meeting held yesterday afternoon at the residence of J. G. W. Smith, No. 184 V street northwest, and outlined the project. He stated that Cardinal Gibbons had appointed an assistant priest at Brookland, the Rev. Father Mark, with whose assistance the work of the projected new parish is to be executed. He also stated that St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum had been included in the parish of St. Anthony, and that his work thereby was considerably increased.

He said he had conferred with the cardinal concerning the establishment of the new parish, and the cardinal has given him authority to proceed with the project and bring it to a successful conclusion.

It was decided to start the Sunday school next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the old mansion of David Moore, North Capitol and T streets northwest. After school there will be a meeting of the members of the new parish at the same place. The location of a site for the new church will then be discussed.

Star Advertisements. 14th and E. ave. Advertisements are received at The Star's branch office, Huddellson's drug store, corner 14th street and Rhode Island avenue, at regular rates, and sent immediately to The Star office without charge for the messenger.

FORMALLY INSTALLED.

Dr. Stafford Becomes the Pastor of St. Patrick's Church.

Rev. Dr. J. Stafford was installed yesterday as the permanent pastor of St. Patrick's Church. The installation ceremonies were simple, but impressive. At their conclusion fully 2,500 people passed through the rectory and shook hands with the new pastor. Dr. Stafford had refused a public reception and installation, and the services yesterday were initiated by the choir and altar boys. A sermon was delivered by Rev. John T. Wheeler of Baltimore, who spoke on the priesthood. In his remarks in connection with the installation ceremony he said:

"Such is the office of the eternal priesthood established by Christ; such the exalted station of him who is ordained for men in the things that appertain to God. If today I have dwelt upon themes so holy, I especially have endeavored to make clear to you the sacred relations in which the priest stands to the people. It is because at this time the duties of priest and pastor in this church are laid upon one who has always had before him for his guidance the highest ideal of sacerdotium."

To him these duties are not new. To the people of St. Patrick's he is no stranger. He has been in the various phases of priestly work—the altar and in the pulpit; in the clear light of public notice and at the bedside of the dying; winning the reverence and respect of those who are not of this fold. As he first came to this parish in obedience to the command of his superior, in obedience to that command, to take up greater burdens of responsibility.

"There is also a guiding principle has been that whatever talent whatever quality of mind, or power of speech, or force of influence he possessed, all this should be put to the use of God and in the service of his neighbor.

"If he is not otherwise in the future. For, though he cannot hope to gain the approval of all those who sit in judgment, any more than Christ did, and though he must expect criticism whatever course he may follow, there is always for him as for every man in high station, the consciousness of having lived up to an ideal which he would close his eyes and murmur as it may.

"There is also, your pastor the loyal compensation of your loving and loyal support; the strengthening of your prayers; the participation of your sorrows and your joys; the knowledge that the judgment of the faithful he may see realized in the things that appertain to God."

EXPENSIVE BLAZE.

Residence and Contents Damaged to 7th street southwest, was badly damaged by fire about 7:40 o'clock this morning. The explosion of a gasoline stove caused the fire, the report of the explosion being heard several squares away. R. C. Simms turned in an alarm and several companies of the fire department were soon in the vicinity of the burning house. The report of the explosion followed by dense smoke pouring from the building, and the fire spread rapidly. In a short time after reaching the scene the firemen had the flames under control. The property was damaged to the extent of $500.

Housekeepers, Attention!
Don't fail to attend the largest auction sale of furniture, carpets, etc., ever held in Washington tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. 1225 F st. n.w.—Adv.

Car in Two Collisions.
Car No. 109 on the City and Suburban line figures in two collisions Saturday night. About 9:15 o'clock the car and a buggy came together on R street. H. E. Burgess, who was in the buggy, escaped injury, but the vehicle was damaged. When the car reached K street the second collision occurred. The car struck a car of Kilroy, who was painfully injured. He was carried for at a nearby drug store. W. H. Sawyer, driver of the wagon, was taken to St. Elizabeth's Hospital. His wagon was badly damaged.

Flynn's Business College, 8th and K. Business, shorthand, typewriting—$25 a year.—Advertisement.

Illness of Miss Brewer.
Miss Elizabeth Brewer, daughter of Justice Brewer of the United States Supreme Court, suffered an attack of acute indigestion while returning home from New York Saturday night. She was apparently ill while on the train and was given every attention possible until the train reached the Baltimore and Annapolis station. At 10 o'clock the ambulance was summoned and Miss Brewer was removed to her home, No. 1412 Massachusetts avenue northwest.

Return of Dr. Bristol.
It was announced during the service in the Metropolitan M. E. Church yesterday that Dr. Bristol, pastor of that church, who has been abroad for some weeks, would reach his home in this city Wednesday.

Will of James W. Moore.
The will of James W. Moore of Nebraska was filed today for probate in the office of the register of wills of the District of Columbia. The document is dated May 25, 1893, and according to its terms, to Eveline A. Moore, wife of the testator, are bequeathed for life premises No. 1105 24th street northwest and the furnishings. At her death Logan E. Moore, son of the testator, and executor of his will, is to divide the property among the testator's children, share and share alike.

The executor is appointed to pay to the testator's son, Logan E. Moore, $1,000 within a year after the death of the testator. Certain property in Nebraska is bequeathed to the children.

Dies While on His Way Home.
Joseph Warren Brinkerhoff, nineteen years old, whose father, Henry S. Brinkerhoff, is a clerk in the War Department and who lives at 3439 Holmead avenue, died on a Southern railway train near Lynchburg, Va., this morning. He was on his way home from a town in West Virginia where he had been visiting.

The young man was suffering from an attack of malaria, and he was quite ill when he started from West Virginia. A friend who accompanied him was with him at the time of his death. His body was brought to Washington and placed in the undertaker's care. After being viewed, the body was removed to the family home on Holmead avenue, from where the funeral will take place. Coroner Neville viewed the body and gave the necessary death certificate.

Body Identified.
The body of the colored man found in the James Creek canal Saturday afternoon has been identified as that of George Jackson, who was a laborer about the Center market. His brother, whose wife is to be buried tomorrow, lives at 1239 4th street northwest. A sister of the young man, who lives in Philadelphia, is expected here late this afternoon.

Jackson, it is believed, fell overboard while taking place on the canal. His body is still at the morgue.

Death of Well-Known Resident.
H. A. Garrett of Glen Echo died at 2 o'clock this morning at Georgetown University Hospital, where he had undergone an operation for cancer of the stomach. He was tax collector for the fifth collection district of Montgomery county, Maryland. He was formerly associated with Mr. O. S. Maus in the mercantile business at Great Falls. His wife and four sons survive him. Mrs. Garrett is the daughter of W. C. Ror, county commissioner for the fifth district.

The deceased was fifty-six years of age. He was well known in Washington, and was noted for charity and rectitude of character.

Died at Columbus.
The news has been received in this city of the death of Mrs. Grace McGraw Monypeny this morning at Columbus, Ohio, after a short illness.

FUNERAL OF DR. EMMER.

Prominent Citizen of Washington Passes Suddenly Away.

The funeral of Dr. Dr. Julius Emmer, who died at his late residence yesterday, was held at the funeral home at Glenwood, services being conducted at the grave by Hope Lodge, No. 20, F. A. M., of which the deceased had been a member since its organization, about forty years ago.

Dr. Emmer last Monday celebrated his fiftieth anniversary of citizenship in the District of Columbia. He was in his early days identified with many interests in the city. He was a member of the volunteer fire department, having served with the old Franklin Company, No. 2. One of his great pleasures in life was that he was able to see his name on every number of The Evening Star ever published. His passing away was very sudden. He was well and hearty at 9:15 o'clock p.m. Thursday, and at 9:30 he expired at the age of seventy-two. His wife, two sons, Julius, Jr., and Henry, and four daughters, Lizzie and Emma, and Mrs. Emmer, survive him and Mrs. Emily E. Johnson, survive him.

KEPT A SPEAKEASY.

Emma Johnson Fined Five Hundred Dollars in Police Court.

"Guilty," was the plea of Emma Johnson, colored, when arraigned in the Police Court this morning charged with having kept a Sunday "speakeasy" at her home in Bates alley. Sergeant Browne, who was the prosecuting witness in the case, called the attention of Judge Kimball to a book of liquor licenses in the name of Emma Johnson, which he had found in the woman's house.

"What did you find in the house when you went there?" Sergeant Browne was asked.

"There were five men there, but they were not drinking when the raid was made," was the answer.

One witness was called and he said he paid Emma 25 cents for five drinks of whisky.

"What were you selling this liquor?" Emma was asked.

"Judge," said the woman, "my husband and I were in the house when the raid was made, and I was trying to get money enough to pay my rent and society insurance."

"By making people drunk?" asked the court.

"I didn't want to make them drunk," responded the woman.

"Don't you know this stuff will cause drunkenness?" asked the judge.

"Yes, sir," replied Emma, "if people drink too much of it."

Judge Kimball said he intended to do what he could to encourage such Sunday business and would impose severe fines in all such cases. Emma was fined $500, and being unable to pay, Judge Kimball ordered her to spend six months in the workhouse.

FAREWELL SERVICES.

Coworkers Bid Good-Bye to Rev. E. D. Bailey.

Services were held last night in the Metropolitan M. E. Church bidding farewell to Rev. E. D. Bailey, one of the evangelists connected with the People's Mission. Mr. Bailey, who was found in the city in charge of the City Mission and Tract Society of Brooklyn, Mr. B. H. Warner introduced Mr. Bailey to the audience, and the latter spoke at some length in reviewing the work of the People's Mission.

Short addresses were then made by Rev. Teunis S. Hamlin, D.D., pastor of the Church of the Covenant; Rev. William H. Chapman, D.D., pastor of the Metropolitan Presbyterian Church; Rev. Dr. George O. Little and Rev. Dr. James E. Gilbert. The service was rendered by the People's Mission Orchestra, led by Mr. Thomas C. Havell, assisted by chorus singing. The service was rendered by the People's Mission Orchestra, led by Mr. Thomas C. Havell, assisted by chorus singing. The service was rendered by the People's Mission Orchestra, led by Mr. Thomas C. Havell, assisted by chorus singing.

RECTOR OF TRINITY CHURCH ADDRESSES HIS PARISHIONERS.

According to a pastoral letter addressed to the members of the congregation of Trinity P. E. Church, 3d and C streets, by Rev. Richard P. Williams, the rector, there is a strange lack of interest in the financial condition of the parish.

The communication, which is a lengthy one, was distributed at yesterday's service. After reciting the lack of interest above noted the letter continues in part as follows:

"If every one would do something, no matter if it be a very little, this would not be long. There are arrears of pew rents and delinquencies among holders of the weekly collection. The result is that the salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight, and that this neglect will serve to matter. The salary of the rector and curates is not paid with regularity. This would not be permitted to continue in any other organization. Surely an organization of Christians should have as high an ideal of honor and honesty as a secular commercial body. You would not be surprised if a clerk or a domestic employee hesitated to continue in service if the salary promised was not paid. I am quite sure that the cause of the present neglect is not oversight